

THE SIXTH ANNUAL SERVANT LEADERSHIP DAY WITH
FR. BRIAN KOLODIEJCHUK, MC
“SAINT TERESA OF CALCUTTA: MODEL OF SERVANT LEADERSHIP”

Mother Teresa's life and words give new meaning to understanding Servant Leadership. Fr. Brian Kolodiejchuk, MC, was personally invited by Mother Teresa to become a priest in the order she founded. He is Superior General of the Missionaries of Charity Fathers, and he is Editor of Mother Teresa: Come Be My Light, (Doubleday, 2007). He was appointed Postulator of her Cause of Beatification and Canonization, and is Director of the Mother Teresa of Calcutta Center. He has served worldwide, including Moscow, Calcutta, Tijuana and Rome.

He has a PhD in Organizational Psychology from Saybrook Institute, San Francisco, as well as a MA in Philosophy and a MDiv in Theology.
